- complete information below for the person who the child lived with while at school:

Name of Child

Name of person child lived with

Telephone Number

Relationship to Child

- return this form and any attachments to the Department of Revenue at the address below.

If you were absent from Alaska and attended more than one school during calendar year 2022, provide a separate Education Verification Form for each school. You may make copies of this form. This form is also available on our web site at www.pfd.alaska.gov.

Collegiate means the student is attending an institution that is Title IV or accredited. If the school is neither, it can qualify if a minimum of three accredited colleges will accept its credits upon transfer or for graduate program purposes.

Vocational-technical (Voc-Tech) and Professional Development Receiving vocational, professional, or other specific education on a full-time basis means attending a program for which, as determined by the Alaska Commission on Postsecondary Education, a comparable program is not reasonably available in the state at an educational institution eligible to participate in financial aid programs administered by the Alaska Commission on Postsecondary Education.

Send completed form and required documentation to Department of Revenue, PFD Division,
